SENIOR CLASS OF PRICE HIGH SCHOOL

SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOLUME 39

Bryant Norman

Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1956, hereby wish to offer a presentation of some of the activities we have enjoyed, with the hope that they may be as interesting to you as they have been to us.

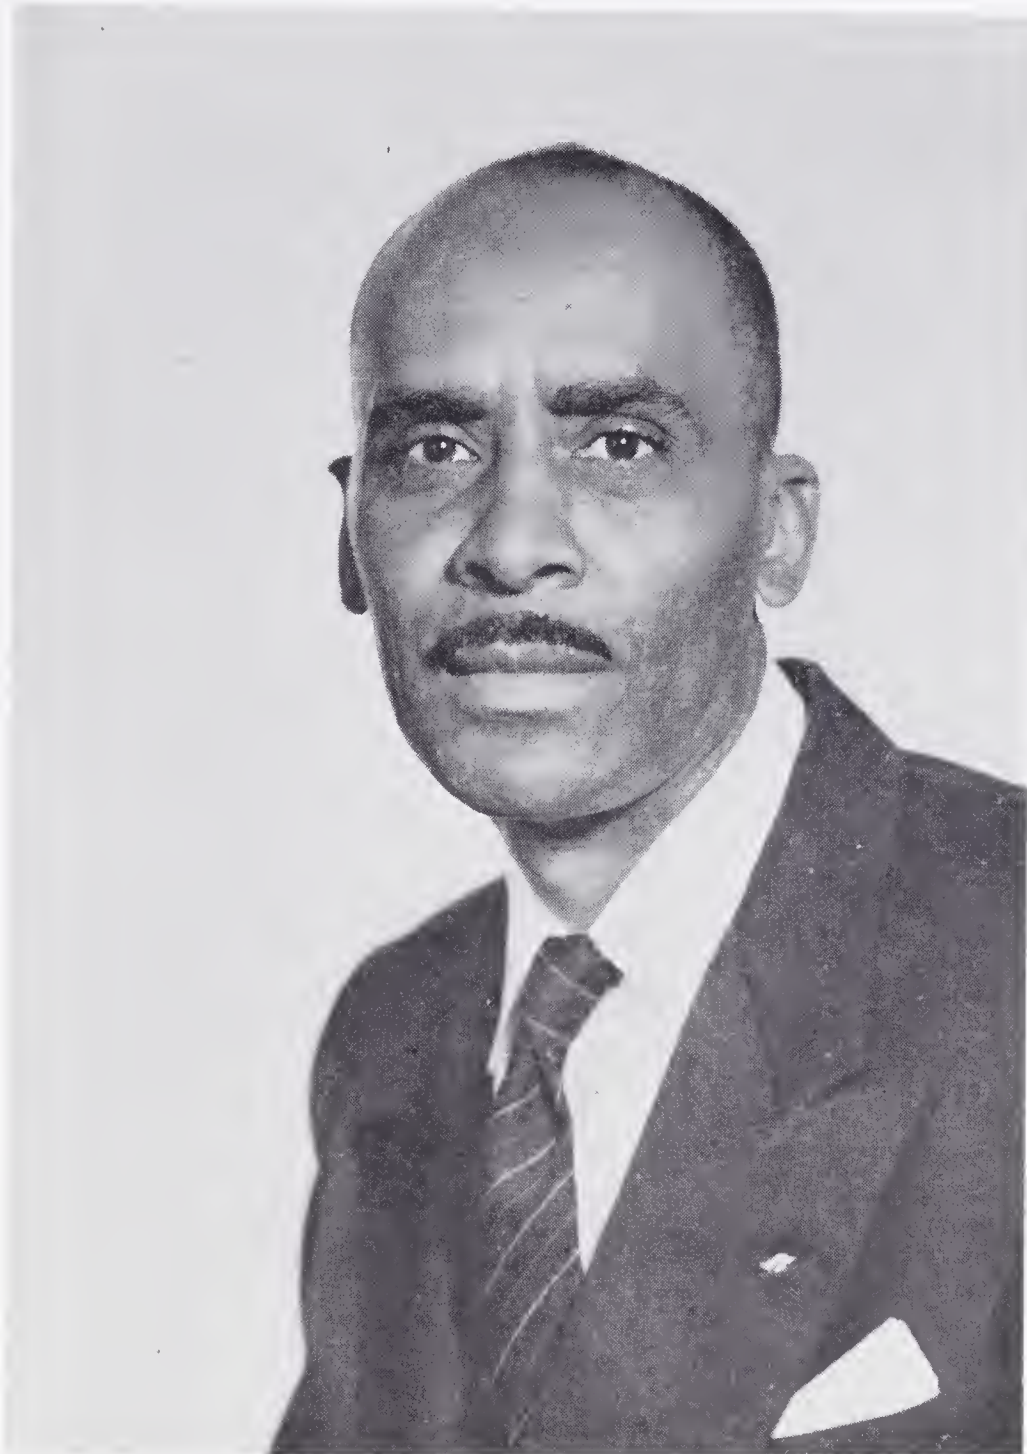

We wish to offer our sincere gratitude to Superintendent J. H. Knox and Mr. S. O. Jones, our Principal, for their supervision and leadership throughout our high school years. To the members of the faculty and to our parents we offer our heart-felt appreciation. Words cannot express our deep gratitude to our homeroom teachers, Mrs. A. A. Lancaster and Mr. W. L. Miller.

As we go to press we wish to express our thanks also to Rowan Printing Company, The Earle Studio, and the many Salisbury business firms, and organizations who have made it possible for us to publish this Annual. For all advertisements, and all donations given, the Senior Class is genuinely grateful.

WILLIAM LEE KEITH

Editor

Dedication

The Class of 1956 hereby dedicates this Annual to Mr. S. W. Lancaster, coach and instructor of physical education and science. We wish to honor Coach Lancaster for the commendable ideals of sportsmanship and fair play he has instilled into all of the football and basketball teams that have come under his guidance for the past two decades. Through this dedication we join many who feel that the emphasis he has placed on physical fitness, healthy living, worthy use of leisure time through games, and on science in every-day living has been of immeasurable benefit to students of Price High School.

The Superintendent

MR. J. H. KNOX

I extend congratulations to Price High School, and particularly to the PRICEAN staff and its faculty advisers, upon the publication of the 1956 Annual.

This volume represents much intelligent planning and hard work; the book itself reveals the best efforts of all who helped to make it a reality.

I hope that the 1956 PRICEAN will serve to keep fresh the wholesome memories of happy days of the accomplishments of high school life that were worth while.

May it serve also to inspire students and other citizens to greater personal and community achievements and service in years yet to come.

J. H. KNOX, Superintendent
Salisbury City Schools

Price High School

In this building we have made progress, physically, mentally, socially, and spiritually. Many fond memories will be associated with classrooms, cafeteria, teachers, classmates and friends. More and more we shall cherish our moments spent in dear Price High, a place truly where we as students and

*"Teachers, patrons, parents dear
Are bound by cords of love,
Striving ever-more to lift
Mankind to realms above."*

“How Do You Do?”

MR. L. H. HALL

Hundreds of students, parents, and patrons of Price have been greeted through the years by Mr. L. H. Hall, our retired principal, who always greets one cheerfully with “How do you do?” For thirty-six years he was the leader of our Negro Public School System. As principal of Price he was an inspiration to all who came under his wholesome guidance.

We salute Mr. Hall as a great educator and a great citizen. Since 1911 he has been superintendent of the Sunday School of Moore’s Chapel; he has been trustee of the same church for twenty-two years. Mr. Hall has served as Tenant Interviewer for the Housing Projects, member of the Recreation Commission, member of the Interracial Council, Chairman of the Rowan Division of Boy Scouts, Secretary of the National Alumni Association of Livingstone College. The City of Salisbury has honored Mr. Hall in three significant ways: a street has been named for him; the gymnasium and shop building were named in his honor. Recently he has been appointed as member of the Board of Education of the city. May we do our best as he has done!

The Principal

Permit me to congratulate you on the publication of this Annual. I have observed you carefully as you have gone about preparing this material for publication and you have convinced me beyond doubt, that when there is a project being developed in which you have devout interests. You can and will adjust your activities to meet the demands.

There are those among you who are capable of rising up to any occasion and demonstrating with finesse the ease with which difficult problems can be met and solved.

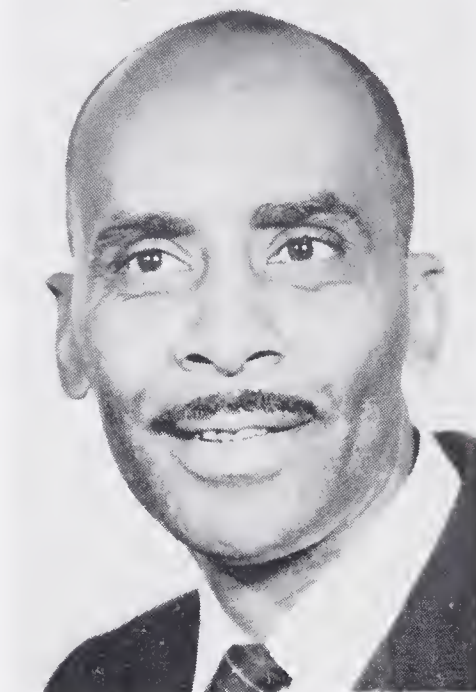

May you continue to meet life situations with increased interest, enthusiasm and adeptness, with hopes of being healthy, happy, and successful—ever nurturing the desire to give consecrated service for the advancement of humanity.

Class History

In the year of 1952 eighty students entered Price High School as Freshmen. As we were a large class we were put into three divisions under the guidance of Mrs. W. M. Williams, Mr. A. Monroe, and Mrs. Henrietta Pope. Most of us had come from Monroe Street School and Lincoln Elementary School. Carol Johnson came from Kannapolis, N. C. There were a few others who had joined us from county schools.

We participated in some of the major activities of the school. Franklynne Sawyer, Eunice Littlejohn, Geraldine Ormond, Robert Welborne, and Johnnie Mae Jackson became members of the band.

Robert Smyre, Roscoe Roberts, Mary Reid, Juanita Anderson and Napoleon Boyd became members of the Safety Patrol.

Imagine our pride in having such boys as Donald Judge, Jethro Partee, Howard Mitchell and Kenneth Carroll on the football team with James McKenzie as trainer.

Our Student Council representatives were Rufus Little, John McLaughlin, and Gladys Byrd. On the girl's basketball team were Yvonne Pharr, Geraldine Ormond, Laura Sawyer, and Magdalene Cathcart. We were fortunate enough to have a few members musical enough to join the glee club. They were Frances McCorkle, Magdalene Cathcart and Yvonne Pharr.

Gladys Byrd, Mamie Lee Jones, Franklynne Sawyer, Geraldine Ormond, and Eunice Littlejohn joined the Dramatics club.

On the boys basketball team were Jethro Partee, and James Hawthorne who played very well. Many of the freshmen girls were invited to the annual football banquet which was held at the American Legion Hut.

Loretta Stoner was candidate for "Miss Price." Geraldine Ormond won the oratorical contest.

On May 6, 1952, we lost our beloved principal, Mr. O. C. Hall. His passing was for us very sad, because he had endeared himself to all of the students.

After a successful year, we left the freshman class to become sophomores. When we first entered school we found a new principal, Mr. S. O. Jones. We soon learned to respect and admire and like him for his many noble qualities.

This year we were under the supervision of Mr. I. J. Olds, Miss A. E. Marie Weeks, and Mr. J. W. Nicholson. Geraldine Ormond was candidate for "Miss Price." We were happy to have her crowned "Miss Price" at the home-coming game by Mr. S. O. Jones, our principal.

Roscoe Brown and Nora Faye Smith joined us. Bryant Norman, Charles Fields, Rufus Little, Mamie Lee Jones, Mary Reid, Adoris Robinson, and Adam Robertson joined the band.

Carol Johnson, Yvonne Pharr, John Massey, Roscoe Brown, and Sadine Parks were in the glee club. Joseph Lavie joined the Safety Patrol and Geraldine Ormond, Laura Sawyer, Mamie Lee Jones, and Winslow Caldwell became members of the Student Council.

Yvonne Pharr won the solo contest. Gladys Byrd was crowned "Miss N. H. A." Juanita Anderson was crowned "Miss Varsity Sweetheart." Geraldine Ormond won the American Legion State Oratorical Contest of $100.00

On September 1, 1955, we became the honorable Seniors of Price High School. For several months we have been one big family. We had been divided into two sections for convenience of keeping records but we are considered as only one class.

We have been under the supervision of Mr. W. L. Miller and Mrs. A. A. Lancaster, Rufus Little is class President.

During the month of October, the Senior Class was asked to be guest at A. & T. College along with a hundred other high schools. The trip was enjoyed by all. Our Chaperones were Mrs. A. A. # Class Prophecy

Listen all ye students of Price High, as I remove this veil of the future, letting the Spirit of Prophecy descend from the spheres to envelop my soul with its mystic power. Aye, I say unto you, it has been given unto me as the chosen one of this great and good people, the class of 1956, to dream strange dreams, and to see strange visions of the glories of the years yet to be.

They told me I must prophesy, but I know not what to do because I was not born a prophet. Neither were any of you. I took several days out to study. I thought hard and deep. At last all worn and weary I finally fell asleep.

I had lain there but a moment when I awoke, refreshed and strengthened. I got up and looked around. Everything seemed strange and queer. Just then I realized that I was in a strange place, because I saw no familiar faces. I walked around the corner when someone yelled "Hey there Shorty, Long time no see." I turned to see Paul Barger, one of my 1956 class mates, who now was a great movie producer and was walking down Broadway with me. He spoke of various pictures which he had produced. Juanita Anderson, who has taken over the retired Marilyn Monroe's place, is the star of most of his pictures. Over at N. Y. U. Bryant Norman and Roscoe Brown are teaching courses in art and chemistry, "flunking" three out of every ten students. Over in France, Napoleon Boyd is happily married to the Duchess of Gual. I must say he is wide awake now and is really living. Maggie Hinton and Eunice Littlejohn are famous models in Los Angeles, with their pictures in all magazines and newspapers.

Mamie Jones is president of the Palmer Memorial School in Sedalia, while Gladys Byrd is superintendent of nurses at Kate Bittings Reynolds Hospital in Winston-Salem.

James Morris and Donald Judge are playing hard with the Globe Trotters, hitting anywhere from 20 to 35 points a game. Just then my dreams were beginning to get pleasant and I was getting hungry. I turned down 5th Avenue in New York and saw a large green and red sign saying Parks & McCorkle Restaurant. I went inside and to my surprise Sadine and Frances were celebrating their fifth anniversary. They announced me as their guest and boy! I was treated like a queen. The food was excellent and as usual I ate heartily.

Later in the day I had to leave these two dear friends to go to Hawaii to relax a while and enjoy the sun. As I was lying there I heard some very sweet music. As I began to get in the mood and sway a little, I noticed an orchestra in the far corner. Upon advancing a little I could see girls doing a Hawaiian dance with grass skirts. When I got close enough to see, I noticed that their faces looked familiar. Then I recognized the director of the band. It was Gilbert Phifer. Some of the members were James Standifer and Sidney Kirksey. The vocalist was Dorothy McConneaughey. Three of the six dancing girls were Magdalene Cathcart, Annie M. Hargrave, and Johnnie Jackson. Of course they're really in business, for this is just a part time job for them.

By plane I went to Mississippi. I could see a photographer and a crowd of people. I walked over to see what was happening. I have been surprised before but never so greatly as I was to see that David Boger and Jethro Partee were the world's greatest Negro Engineers with William Keith and Rufus Little as their assistants. I almost fainted, but a strong handsome man from behind caught me. I heard him mention something about holding something in his arms besides weight lifters. I turned around and noticed that Charles Fields was tall, slim and I must say handsome. Before I could ask him if he was married or not he interrupted my speech by introducing me to his wife and two children. Next I made my way to the hotel owned by John Mackey. I thought I was going to get some rest but in the foyer I saw Mary Alice Reid and Winslow Caldwell, who were television artists being directed by James Cook. They told me about Clarence Finn striking it rich in California, about Yvonne Pharr and Delores Hull who had organized the Hull & Pharr dance groups at Michigan State.

Finally I went upstairs. Before I got inside my room the phone rang. It was that popular bachelor, Billy Jones calling to ask me to the concert where he and Carol Johnson were singing. The concert was really great.

The next morning I left for Chicago where some of my class mates were now living. There I found that Adam Robertson and Adoris Robinson had taken over "Olds Band" and were making history playing at every dance they heard about.

Roscoe Roberts had been president of the Roberts clothing Co. for quite some time with David Jones as his assistant. Bertie Mae Wellington is one of the most famous dress designers in New York.

That popular dean I've heard so much about is none other than Charles Edward Hunt, Jr. who is now dean at North Carolina College. The world's most famous baseball player is James Hawthorne. Harold Fleming is head surgeon at Rowan Memorial Hospital. Also in Salisbury, I find that the present principal of Price High School is James McKenzie. Right across the street, Odell Camps and Stephen Holt are sitting on their porches watching their children play. That must be a happy life. Kenneth Carroll and Robert Welborne are playing with that famous combo, with Carroll in charge and the great Mae Catherine Waiters as soloist.

Over in Canada, I find Charles Wansley married to the leading lady in one of the famous dance groups there. I never thought he would stop jiving the young ladies long enough to get married and have three children, but he fooled me.

To this very day, Joseph Lavie is a lawyer who can solve most any case. John Massey has taken over Barger's store and business has begun to pick up. Meanwhile Bennie Mitchell has opened an art school on Bank Street. Syvester Wells, Robert Smyre, and David Smoot are making a career of Army life. All of these have the rank of major and are making progress. Frankie Sawyer has opened a large motel in Detroit, while her friends, Annie Oakley and Geraldine Ormond are touring the world making public orations. The present secretary at A & T College is Loretta Stoner. Waddelle Wilson and Mary Woodbury are living in Las Vegas with their families. Both of them are living in wealth. Richard Witherpoon and John McLaughlin own large oil wells. They have really struck it rich. Howard Mitchell is still a handsome bachelor jiving every young girl that comes along.

As I turned over for the last stretch, I was awakened by a gentle touch. It was my oldest son. You see I am happily married and living in Oregon with my family. Being a doctor and serving at the Elliott Memorial Hospital here in Oregon, my life is a busy one. My dreams have been pleasant but I must finish them later. So long class-mates of "1956".

Class Poem

From alpha to omega great names will e're prevail;
Among them, J. C. Price's name we will e're forever hail.
We hail it for the truth it bears,
And for its challenge through the years.

To thee great Alma Mater,
This name we will hold dear.
Thy lessons of faith, hope, and love,
We will forever share.

For four long years we have endured
Some failures and some gains.
Through faith and understanding,
We'll seek to reach new aims.

We leave you noble Price High,
Our parting soon is nigh;
Your teachings we will cherish
As the sands of time roll by.

ADIEU DEAR PRICE

Its almost tomorrow, our moments are few;
O dear Alma Mater, we bid you adieu.
Four years you have kept us so safe within your walls;
Four years we have cherished your heart-warming halls
Our teachers, our parents have helped us along
To build for a future that's steady and strong,
Beloved Alma Mater, to us you are dear,
You've helped us to overcome each problem and fear.
We leave you our blessings, we leave you our hearts,
But Dear Alma Mater how we hate to part!
Its almost tomorrow a year that is new,
Dear Price High Alma Mater, we bid you adieu!

The Statistician Report

I, Loretta Stoner, having been chosen as statistician by my classmates, shall strive to do my best and attempt to uphold this position by giving you an analysis of the class of '56.

The shortest girl in our class is Nora Smith; our shortest boy is Robert Smyre. We have three tall girls, but Waddelle Wilson is the tallest. Roscoe Roberts, Jr. is our tallest boy. Of course you know Charles Fields, Jr., is our largest boy. Who else could it be? Mary Woodbury is our largest girl.

Most of us will graduate at the age of 18 with the exception of Franklynne Sawyer and Charles Fields, Jr. who will only be 16. A number of others will be graduating at the age of 20 and more, not to mention the boys that have been in service.

Our favorite subjects are Negro History, and Science, but the majority of the class prefers something easy like studying and typing.

The class prefers Oldsmobiles, Fords, Mercurys, and Buicks, but Mary Alice Reid says any old thing will do just as long as it moves and carries.

"The Platters" and "Little Richard", were voted as our top singers in the Rhythm and Blues field, but Delores Hull and Eunice Littlejohn prefer Stan Kenton's and Earl Bostic's music such as "23 North & 82 West", and "Grapevine". "The Great Pretender", "My Heart Is Bleeding", "In Paradise", "Nite Owl" and "Slipping & Sliding", were voted as our favorite songs.

The girls do some of the following things to pass the time away; date, go to the movies, enjoy parties, dance, read books, and look at TV; however Johnnie Mae Jackson says she thinks it is much easier to stay at home and eat and sleep. That way she thinks you will get plenty of rest.

The boys enjoy shooting pool. As usual most of them enjoy sports, dating, and buying classy clothes such as three-quarter-length coats, (which are taken from them as soon as they get to school by the girls.) Some enjoy out-of-town trips but Kenneth Carroll prefers to visit Mowery Lane.

In choosing dates the boys prefer girls in lower classes. A few prefer sophisticated seniors but these girls are hard to find. The girls prefer tall, dark, and handsome men, though most of the time they have to settle for whats at Price, or do we? Frances McCorkle prefers what Hartford Seminary produces and still some like Service men. What about it girls?

I guess all of you know that People's Choice is the favorite cafe for the majority of us since the Varsity Inn is out of circulation. Yet quite a few prefer Carter's in Spencer. Don't let me forget the Snack Bar!

Our favorite movie stars are Jeff Chandler, Jack Sernas, "Our Helen of Troy" hero, Grace Kelly and Marilyn Monroe, but Robert Welborne, Jr. likes Clay Morgan, or "The Long Ranger". The majority of us enjoy romance, comedies, tragedies, and western pictures.

Most of the television fans prefers the "Ford Theatre", "December Bride", "Highway Patrol", "I Love Lucy", "Toast of the Town" and "Alfred Hitchcock Presents", but John Mackey prefers shoot-up-ups like Annie Oakley and Magdalene Cathcart prefers "Early Matinee".

The radio fans favor the following musical program such as "Randy", "Tops and Pops" (Nashville, Tenn.) They also listen to club 200 (Lexington) and "Bop Shop" (Mooresville) but William Keith prefers to listen to the Supper Club (Salisbury) he says he can understand the music better.

Fried chicken, beef, and sea foods are the favorites of the majority. David Jones would rather eat souse meat and crackers.

Candies—like Mounds, Almond Joy, and Hershey Bars are leading in the candy field.

The styles popular among the seniors are three-quarter-length coats, "V" neck sweaters, straight skirts, cuban heels, Bermuda shorts, turbans, and fancy handkerchiefs. The boys like to match their socks and ties.

One of the favorite bad habits is chewing gum in class such as Spearmint and Cloves, but Yvonne Pharr prefers Bubble gum because you get more for your money.

In our class we have twenty-eight students who plan to attend College, twelve who plan to join the Armed Services, fourteen who plan to get a job, six who plan to take up a trade, three to attend Beauty Culture School and the remainder to become house-wives. Most of our ambitions to be are: Teachers, Lawyers, Nurses, Beauticians, Secretaries, Artists, and Electrical Engineers.

On Sunday mornings you will find that the majority of our class is found in the Methodist, Baptist, and Presbyterian Churches.

We are sixty-five seniors in number. Sixteen are on the Football team, eleven are on the Basketball team and the girl's first string is made up of all Seniors, nineteen are members of Glee Club. While fourteen seniors belong to the Band.

This all proves that the class of '56 is the best class in the history of Price High School and until we meet again I bid you all farewell.

I here-by sign my name as Statistician for the class of '56.

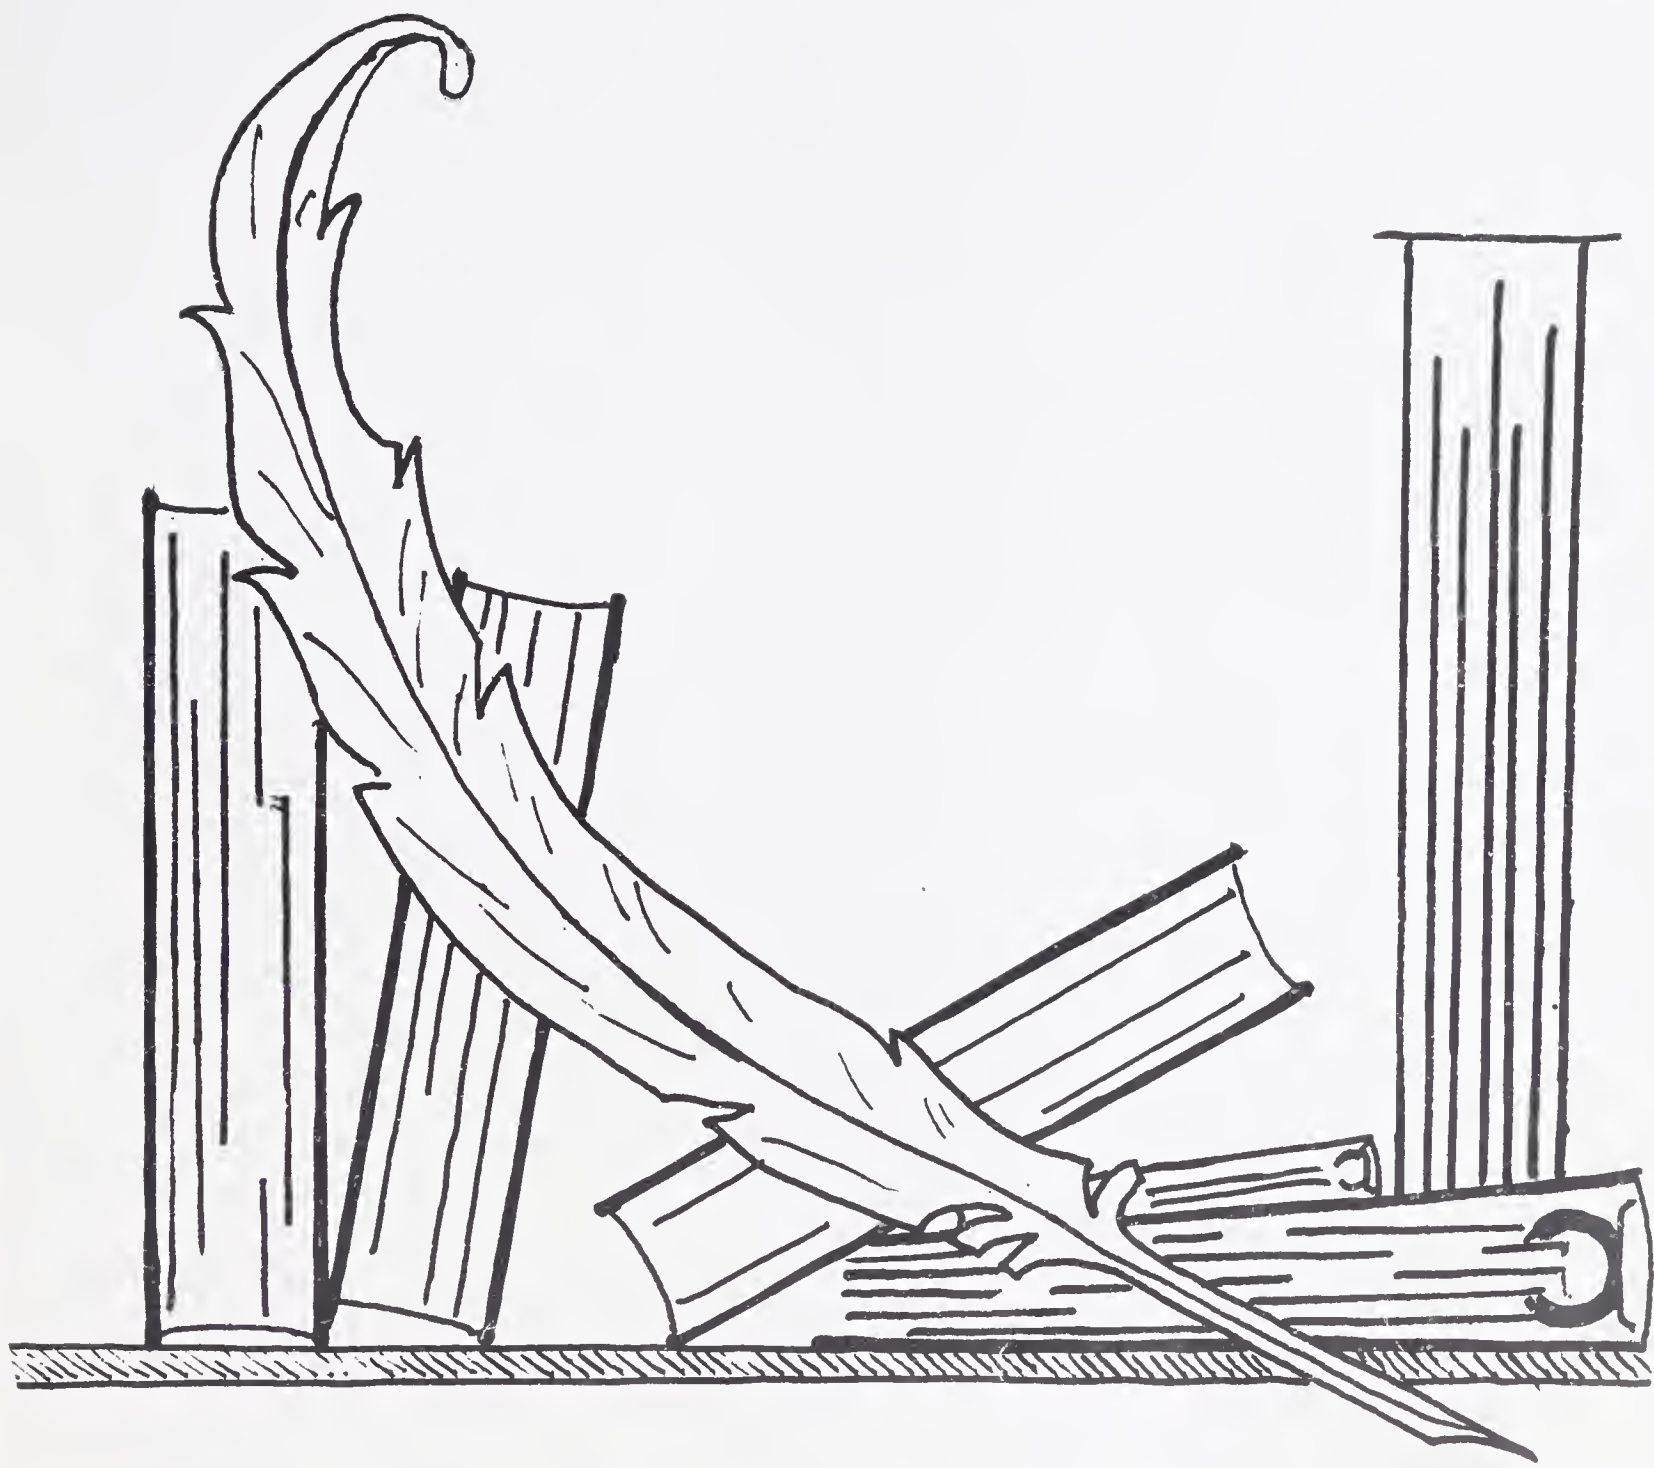

Loretta Roberts Stoner

The Price High School Red Devils had one of their better seasons this year with a record of 5 wins, 1 loss and 2 ties. Halfbacks Clarence Finn and Robert Ervin, and fullback Ray Reid paved the way for the Red Devils.

The Red Devils forward wall was led by James Vincent, Howard Mitchell, Kenneth Carroll and Sidney Kirksey. Curtis Atkins and Rufus Little were the only rookies in the starting line-up.

Clarence Finn was the team's leading scorer with 36 points and was followed by Ray Reid with 21 points. Jimmy Morris was the leading punter collecting 46 yards per punt. Ends Donald Judge and Jimmy Morris were the main targets for quarterback Harold Fleming and halfback Jethro Partee.

The Seniors on the Price roster were: Clarence Finn, David Boger, Rufus Little, Jethro Partee, James McKenzie, James Standifer, James Morris, Donald Judge, Napoleon Boyd, Sidney Kirksey, Howard Mitchell, Harold Fleming, Roscoe Roberts, Charles Fields, Joseph Lavie, and Kenneth Carroll. The captains were Donald Judge, Jethro Partee, and Harold Fleming. All of these boys played major roles in the Red Devils attack.

Price's football squad's annual event of the year was the Thanksgiving Program. This assembly program is carried on each year by the team. The purpose of the occasion is to gather food baskets which are donated by the teachers and students of Price High School and to give these to the most needy families in the different school communities. This year the teachers and students donated approximately $70 worth of food. Twenty-six boxes of food were gathered from this and given to needy families. The squad also presented Coach Lancaster with a sweater as a token of their appreciation for the fine work he had done with the team.

"Miss Price" made her first appearance in the Veterans Day Parade, accompanied by attendants Constance Redfern, Junior and third place runnerup in the contest; Sarah Leach, Sophomore in second place and Almeader Stovall, Freshman in fourth place.

Prior to half-time activities performed before the court, Miss Price was crowned by Mr. Jones, Principal at Price. At this time Miss Price, Laura Franklynne Sawyer, expressed appreciation for all efforts made to bestow this honor upon her and vowed to do all possible to uphold the high standards for which this title stands. The first day's reign concluded with a dance in the L. H. Hall Gymnasium.

Music: Mrs. Abna Lancaster
Arr. by Marie Weeks

Day by day we come to school Thru sun-shine rain and snow Les-sons no-ble, gold-en rules, Di-
Many pupils brave and strong Have left these clas-sic walls Vis-i-tors from far and near, Have rect us as thru' life we go - Games we play in con-tests try Our ve-ry best to tread our spaci-ous sa-cred halls; Tea-chers, pa-trons, par-ents dear Are bound by cords of love; Al-ways for the best de-sire for race and coun-try too.

Striv-ing ev-er-more to lift man-kind to realms a-bove.

Chorus

Thru' all the years Midst our joy and our tears we'll always Love you Dear Price High.

Your col-ors bright we will Ne-ver slight But hold them high until we die, For we may go North, South, or East or West, And by ma-ny col-ors be led; Yet we know of ## Thanks!

On behalf of the annual staff the senior class and the senior advisors, we wish again to express our gratitude to our principal Mr. S. O. Jones for his help and his kind understanding spirit shown to us during our work on this annual. We frequently were discouraged and felt that we had "bitten off more than we could chew." Thanks to his encouragement we completed our task.

Our thanks also goes to all teachers who have helped us in any way. Our last word to you and to Mr. Jones is—"God bless you one and all!"
